

EXAMINATION COMMITTEE

The Continuous Internal Assessment and Evaluation of the students is an integral part of the teaching learning process. The institution adheres to the examination pattern specified by the affiliating university for all the programmes. During the orientation program, the students are informed about the internal assessment which includes internal examinations, practical, assignments and attendance. The college takes care to maintain the confidentiality in the work of examination process.

The college has an Examination Committee constituted by the Principal to carry out the smooth conduct of examinations.
